BRIGHTON BEACH RACE TRACK, July 13 .- Forty thousand spectators, the biggest crowd that Brighton ever held, attended the grandest horse rac eof the season, or, in fact, of any season, here to-day in the $25,000 Brighton Handicap. Peter Pan, the great Keene colt, won it, but only after a terrific stride-for-stride battle through the stretch with Mo-Carter. Notter rode Peter Pan and Miller guided McCarter. It was not a question of best jockey, however. It was the horse and the best one went under the wire a head in front.
